YOUR PLATE, OUR PLACE

It's Panmure's Global Kitchen Month! Time to celebrate the passionate people behind the counters, kitchens, and grills who keep us well-fed.

Panmure is a hidden foodie haven in Auckland, particularly for those seeking authentic, diverse, and affordable Asian and ethnic cuisines.

The suburb looks unassuming, but it has developed a reputation among local foodies for its high-quality, "no-frills" eateries. From award-winning Nashville-style hot chicken to authentic Nepalese momos and Malaysian laksa, Panmure is officially the underrated culinary hotspot people can't stop talking about! Adventurous eaters, lovers of Asian street food, and anyone searching for great quality food without the premium prices, Panmure is the place to eat. A special place indeed.
